

Makhato Bush Lodge - Sondela Nature Reserve

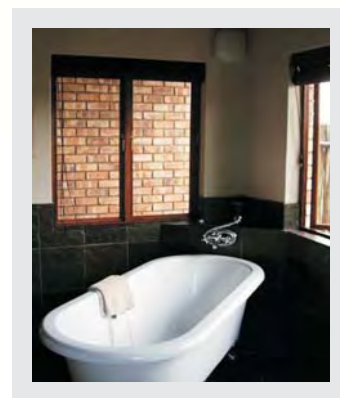

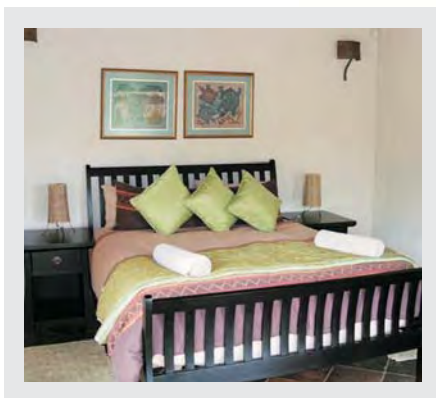

Nestled in the cradle of the Bushveld, lies the Makhato Bush Lodge in the pristine Sondela Nature Reserve. Conveniently situated an easy 90 minutes drive from Johannesburg and 10 km east of Bela-Bela, the reserve provides endless opportunities to embrace the tranquillity of the Bushveld, also home to a vast variety of birds and plains game.

The development is a 200ha sectional title section at the eastern border of the reserve. Private access from the main gate ensures privacy and a safe and secure environment for each owner.

On Sondela there is no shortage of activities and entertainment for the whole family. Enjoy the fresh, clean air on the trail hikes or one of the bush walks. Take in the beauty of the Bushveld on horseback or enjoy an adrenaline rush on one of the quad bikes. Other outdoor activities include cycling, mountain bike trails, game drives, excellent birding opportunities and much more. Facilities include hot and cold water swimming pools, jungle gyms, a tree house, a beauty and massage salon, putt putt, tennis and volleyball. Make a note to visit the Farmyard where the young can milk cows and pet the tame sheep – an experience they will not easily forget! The Sondela Wildlife Centre takes care of wild animals in distress, rescue and rehabilitate sick or injured wild animals, hand rear orphaned wild animals and provide comfortable safe holding facilities for animals.
